Let us help you create a wedding filled with splendor and magic.

Adele and Dan Harlacher cut the cake at their wedding last August, which they kept a secret from many of their guests.

said Adele. "I was told there wasn't a dry eye in the house." The ceremony was followed by a buffet of heavy hors d'oeuvres and desserts. It had to be a buffet, Adele said, because she couldn't have set up formal seating as it might have given the event away. "The only time people thought something was up was when Rabbi Birnholz walked in," she said.

Adele said she still savors her favorite moments of the day.

"Being under the chuppah with my husband and Rabbi Birnholz was wonderful," she said, "and seeing my mom there, being happy for me, was truly special."

The couple, both 50, had been together several years prior to their marriage and between them have five children, all grown and living in the area. They work together professionally also, as co-owners of the Tampa Bay franchise of Valpak Direct Marketing Systems, Inc.
