HELP WANTED

EDUCATION DIRECTOR

Congregation Kol Ami, a young, family oriented, egalitarian, Conservative synagogue, in north Tampa seeks an Education Director to direct our religious school (grades K-7). Responsibilities include overseeing and managing the school programs, hiring/supervision of teachers, programming and curriculum development, administration and budgeting. Responsibilities also include administering the educational programs for the Kol Ami high school students. Our ideal candidate will be energetic, innovative and highly creative, with the ability to inspire participation in all of our educational activities. Candidates should have very strong administrative skills and ability to relate well to children. The position provides much opportunity for professional growth, creativity and flexibility. It is our hope that this person will become an integral part of our synagogue community, leading our children by their own example. This is a part-time position, approximately 25 hours per week. Credentials required: Masters Degree, preferably in Jewish Education or related field, OR equivalent experience. Experience with children and experience with Jewish education and administrative skills a must.

Salary commensurate with education, skills and experience. Please send resume to Congregation Kol Ami, Attn: Education Director Search Committee, 3919 Moran Road, Tampa, FLA. 33618 or email to amywasser@aol.com
